Longmeadow Newsletter

Message from the Headteacher

Dear Parents

Firstly, apologies if you have been inconvenienced by our lack of internet connection this week. At the time of writing, technicians are working on resolving the problem and we hope to have full communications by end of the week. If not, this will be your first paper copy of the newsletter for a while!

Children have been supporting the Poppy Appeal most generously; including buying a poppy for a friend in some cases. Thank you for your support.

We had many heart-warming messages of thanks from relatives of our elderly neighbours in Pitt Court following Harvest Festival, and will now invite the residents in to watch the Early Years Christmas play, and to sing carols with Key Stage 2 children. It is wonderful to support our community in this way.

The focus for our British Value this half term is The Rule of Law. In assemblies we tell stories to the children related to this topic, and have further discussions in class.

Next week is Anti-Bullying Week. We shall be working with the children to ensure we have a good understanding of what bullying is, and how we can address it if it happens.

Enjoy your weekend.

First Aid Course for KS2 In January 2017

As this proved extremely popular and filled up within a few hours, we will try to arrange another course to give all children an opportunity for First Aid training.

If your child did not manage to get a place this time and you would like them to be put on the waiting list, please let the office know. We will let you know first when a new course can be arranged.
