WEEK ENDING: 21.6.19

In Maths, we have been :

This week we have used maths in other subjects to hone our everyday maths skills. These include measuring and assessing numbers, sizes and time taken to do something.

In topic, we have been:

In our topic studies we have been discovering volcanoes. We looked at how they formed and what made them explode. We also searched the map and computers to find out the locations of famous volcanoes.

In English, we have:

This week we have been finishing off our writing piece about the 'Graveyard' book. We rewrote the first chapter, dramatically described a graveyard scene as well as characters from the book. We then wrote our own version to end the story. There were some fantastic endings showing some very good imaginations.

This week's homework is:

Reading, practising times tables and spellings on the computer sites as well as looking at Purple mash
