Miss Pateman

WEEK ENDING: 3rd December 2020

In phonics this week:

In our phonics this week, we have been looking at the letters z, y, and x.
Can you read and write the words zip, zap, yes, box, fox, yet.
Can you read and write these tricky words:
l, the, no, go, to?

In independent learning time this week:

During independent learning time the children are able to choose which activity to complete inside and outside.
The children have loved enjoying the new Costa role play in which they have played different roles and explored money when taking payment. The children have also been practising their Christmas songs using instruments on the outside stage!

Our topic is:

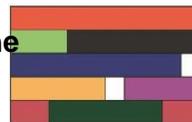

'Celebrations'

Our elf has arrived! The children have named our elf 'Amy' the children have loved seeing the mischief she has created so far. The children have been very excited to help build our new role play 'christmas house' in the classroom. The children have made a fireplace, decorated the tree and have wrapped presents!

In maths this week:

We have learnt a whole can be regrouped into multiple parts but when combined they recreate the whole. We have used cuisinaire rods and tens frames to explore these.

The orange rod is the
