The deadline for all home learning tasks to be completed is: DATE.

Writing Task:

Our Topic this half term is about Mountains.

Choose from the following:

Create a Biography of Sir Edmund Hilary - the first explorer to set foot on the summit of Mount Everest.

Write a letter as Sir Edmund Hilary during your expedition up Everest.

Reading Task:

Ensure that you are reading a minimum of 4 times a week and logging it in your reading record.

Take your library book from school, a book from home or visit

<https://home.oxfordowl.co.uk/reading/free-ebooks/> for different books.

(Oxford Owl website requires a free account to be made by an adult)

Cultural Task:

Many religions from around the world have special symbols, such as the cross in Christianity & The Star of David in Judaism, these symbols are important to the followers of that religion.

Research different symbols and create a symbol that would be important to you.

Science Task:

Choose either a plant, a wild creature from your garden or your pet. Observe over a few weeks what they do, eat, and how they behave. Make some notes on a piece of paper or take some photos to demonstrate the changes in them when they eat, sleep, and play.

Creative Project:

We are studying mountains!

Can you create a model mountain?

Use any materials you have. Take a picture of your mountain and give it a name.

History Task:

We have studied the Victorians.

Research your family tree. Who in your family was born or lived in the Victorian period?

Draw your family tree naming your Victorian ancestors
