You Said, We Did – January 2022

You said	We did
Marvellous Me – rarely receive anything	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Raised profile with the staff</li> <li>• Reminded all staff of the minimum expectations</li> </ul>
Request for separate parents' evenings and event	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• School can offer staggered sessions</li> <li>• Events are advertised on social media and through School Comms with as much notice as possible so that parents are able to make arrangements to attend at separate times</li> </ul>
Teachers aren't always aware of information sent home	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• All staff are now copied into communication sent home via the office</li> </ul>
Request closing school early to complete joint parents' evenings between TAs and teachers	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Teachers have overall responsibility for the learning and progress for all children in their class</li> <li>• Closing early would take us below the hours we are legally required to provide for children</li> <li>• Would create childcare concerns for several families</li> <li>• SENCO offers parent-SENCO chats to discuss pupils with additional needs and their individual targets</li> </ul>
Headteacher communication, e.g. a monthly newsletter	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• SLT are looking into how to develop further relevant information</li> <li>• Every class receives a weekly communication flyer that contains information specific to those children</li> </ul>
